About The Greater PineBelt Community Foundation: Building Better Communities through Philanthropy

The Greater PineBelt Community Foundation (PineBelt Community Foundation) exists to strengthen communities by connecting charitably minded people to causes that matter most to them. Founded in 1997, and organized as a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization, the PineBelt Community Foundation can receive gifts to support non-profits, churches, schools, or charitable causes.

The PineBelt Community Foundation is one of over 700 community foundations in the United States today, all offering donors a variety of ways to enhance their communities.

The PineBelt Community Foundation accepts a wide variety of gifts, making giving easy. Gifts may include cash, stocks, life insurance, property, and bequests--all providing donors' great flexibility and maximum tax benefits.

If you would like to donate to this Fund, please detach the section below and mail it to the PineBelt Community Foundation. To learn more, visit The Greater PineBelt Community Foundation's website at: www.PineBeltFoundation.org or call 601.583.6180.
