

The Greater PineBelt Community Foundation Ralph H. Stallcup Memorial Scholarship Fund

PURPOSE

The Ralph H. Stallcup Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by Barbara Stallcup in honor of her late husband, Ralph H. Stallcup to provide scholarships for non-traditional students who are pursuing a degree at Pearl River Community College (PRCC) and Jones County Junior College (JCJC). Mr. Stallcup enrolled in college after serving in the Navy for ten years. The Stallcups had two children at the time. It is the desire of the Stallcup family to help those who would like to return to school as a non-traditional student.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Ralph H. Stallcup Memorial Scholarship fund will provide a scholarship to one student attending PRCC and one student attending JCJC as the market allows. Applicants can apply for more recurring scholarships. Applicants will be considered based on being a mature student (age 25 and over), going to either PRCC or JCJC, and show financial need.

CRITERIA

The Scholarship Advisory Committee will use the following criteria to award scholarship:

1. Financial Need
2. Mature Student (25 years of age or older)
3. Have their High School Diploma or GED

GUIDELINES

Each applicant must present to The Greater Pine Belt Community Foundation the following by March 1.

- Completed Application form
- Statement in support of your application (letter of recommendation from a teacher, community leader or spiritual leader)
- Official High School transcript or GED
- Resume (if applicable)
