

Arc of Pine Belt Region Endowment Fund

On behalf of...

The Arc of the Pine Belt Region promotes and protects the rights of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and actively supports their full inclusion and participation in the community throughout their lifetimes. The Arc serves those with an intellectual disability in the following counties: Jones, Wayne, Jasper, Smith and Covington.

“Our organization offers support to parents, families and individuals. We host recreational events for our individuals, and we advocate at the local, state and national levels for any laws which could affect the quality of life for people with intellectual disabilities.” said The Arc of the Pine Belt Region President, James Masters. The Arc of the Pine Belt Region is a United Way Agency and has provided services since 1962.

The Arc of the Pine Belt Region’s endowment fund will provide a reliable source of income for generations to come.

The Arc Pine Belt Region, Inc.'s general purpose is to:

- Promote the general welfare of persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities and empower them to become as independent as they can and want to be;
- Serve as a support and advocacy organization to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families and caregivers;
- Further research on all aspects of intellectual and developmental disabilities’ methods of education, training and prevention;
- Develop a better knowledge, understanding and acceptance of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities by the public; to cooperate with all public agencies, private agencies, and service providers, and to promote home and community based services;
- Further the training, education, and recruitment of personnel to work in the field of intellectual and developmental disabilities;
- To solicit and receive funds for the accomplishment of the above purposes; and,
- Encourage the formation of support groups in areas where there are none.

About The Greater PineBelt Community Foundation

The Greater PineBelt Community Foundation (PineBelt Foundation), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, was formed as a charitable organization to receive gifts to support non-profit organizations or charitable causes in the Pine Belt. The organization was formed in 1997 by local civic leaders, and is governed by a strong Board of Directors. It is one of 750 community foundations in the United States today.

The PineBelt Foundation accepts a wide variety of gifts, including: cash, stocks, life insurance, property, and bequests – all providing donors’ great flexibility and maximum tax benefits.
